There was a lot of pressure on the third mohair sale of the winter 2024 selling season. 270 000kg of Cape was offered, and although the quality was excellent, it was still a lot of mohair to be absorbed by basically two buyers. The Rand also strengthened between 4% and 5% in the past week to add more pressure. The marketing team at HF has worked flat out to assist the market and prevent major price changes. It is with a huge relief that we can quote the market down at HF with only 2%! The RMS average market indicator closed at R341.22/kg, only 1.5% down. Under trying circumstances, we are satisfied. Compared to a year ago the average price is identical, with one enormous difference, the Rand was compared to the USA Dollar a whopping 10% weaker. One fact was clear, quality always sells. Congratulations to Dawie du Plessis from Cradock with the best price of the day at R710.10/kg for his top winter kid bale! Sarel du Plessis from Oudtshoorn was in second place with R705.00/kg. Both clips average more than R400.00/kg! The next sale will be held in the Port Elizabeth Mohair Exchange on the 22nd of October.
