The last mohair sale of the 2024 winter selling season maintained the positive note set by the previous sale. The adult market improved by more than 1%, with the highest quantities in this group, it is a good omen for the demand in 2025. Compared to a year ago, the RMS indicator has improved by 3.1%. That is not too bad, considering that the Rand is 3.3% stronger than the US dollar compared to a year ago. The HF RMS offer is also more than 90% this season with a price difference of about 10%. The total quantities offered also increased by 3% to 5%. The highlight of the day's sale must be the three super style winter kid bales sold for R700.00/kg. The two brothers of Graaff-Reinet, Lloyd Short (Borden Farming) and David Short, each offered a 25-micron bale and Frans Retief (Driehoeksfontein Boerdery) from Murraysburg offered a 24-micron bale. Congratulations! The HF team wishes only the best to all its producers, their families and buying clients who supported HF so well this past year to maintain its marketing leader's position. Let us all experience a wonderful holiday season and Christmas break.
